Female Bengal x Domestic Short Hair Mix Cat

SIENNA - IF083-16 Date of Birth: 28th Jan, 2015 Rescue Date: 30th Mar, 2016 Location: Dwellingup, WA DESCRIPTION Sienna is a Bengal (possibly domestic short hair cross) female cat - no papers. HISTORY Sienna was brought into the pound acting very 'feral', which is a known Bengal trait when their worlds are turned upside down. She has not yet been checked for a microchip but will be visiting a vet soon. She was put into emergency care.

TEMPERAMENT Sienna is a typical Bengal in that she is very vocal. When the resident dog approached her confined area, Sienna got right up nose to nose with him and put her paw up. She can be a little unpredictable due to hating changes in her life, and has been known to be a little 'bitey'. LIKES / DISLIKES Sienna hates change in her life, so moving to any new home it will take her time to adjust to the new environment. She likes attention and to have a very loud chat. She doesn't seem to like high quality cat food her foster carer provides for her. IDEAL HOME Sienna would need to go to a home that understands the needs and...
