

Hi, my name is Maisy

Sweet and cuddly!

Small Female Cross Breed Dog

Maisy is ready to find her forever family. Maisy is a very chilled out little lady loving snuggles on the couch or just chilling out in her bed. Since being in care she has been crate trained and happily sleeps the night through. She is a bit of a loner not really wanting to socialise with the other doggies but isn't bothered by them either. Maisy would suit being an only dog with owners that are around most of the time otherwise she would also suit being around another relaxed senior doggie like herself. Rescued from the pound we don't know any background of this sweet munchkin but since being in care she has proved to be a real gentle relaxed sweetheart. Video included is her leaving the pound to a better life :)

Microchipped vaccinated wormed desexed and on monthly flea and heartworm prevention. She has also had a dental clean.
