That squishy pug face!

Small Male Pug Mix Dog

Introducing the amazing Pugalicious - a 4yr old pug cross! You have to love his squishy face and bubbly personality! Pugalicious enjoys getting out and about on walks and car trips with his foster mum and fur siblings. He walks very well on lead so it is great fun for everybody. He attracts a lot of attention because, well, who can resist a little black pug? Pugalicious would love to have a forever home with a small doggie friend to play with. He is quite active and curious so he will need a family that will keep him stimulated with play time and exercise. Although he loves his people and enjoys a cuddle, he's not your typical little quiet lapdog - he loves to play. He is in foster care with a small female dog and he adores running around the yard with her - he is best suited to smaller dogs as he is most confident with them. His preferred companion will be one who is playful and tolerant of Pugalicious' zest for life. He isn't currently living with children but when he has met them on walks he has been good with them. We recommend that any children in his forever home be...
