

Hi, my name is Ebony

Looking for love

Medium Female Staffy Mix Dog

This lovely girl in Ebony! Ebony is lots of fun to be around. She was a little shy at first but her personality and affectionate side are starting to show. She is still a cheeky puppy at heart. She has quite a bit of energy so a home with a good sized yard would be great for her to have lots of runs, ball games and exercise She enjoys being with her foster carers and loves sharing cuddles on the couch with them. She has been friendly towards the children she has met but would be best suited to a family that can offer her a calm family environment. Ebony has been having loads of fun with the other dogs in her foster home. She is a little selective and prefers to spend her time with the dogs that want to have fun rather than the noisy, barking ones. Ebony would benefit greatly from a male dog in her new home to help her learn the ropes and show her what a happy life is all about. We would also consider a home for Ebony where she will not be left alone for long periods of time Ebony has seen cats and shown little interest but hasn't been formerly introduced so a home with n...
