

Hi, my name is Manny

magnificent big friend

Large Male Mastiff Dog

When this lad arrives in a room, you can't help be struck by his presence (and not just his size). This lad is a beauty - a kind, loving, impressive spirit and plenty of dog to hug, and to protect you (around 45 kg). He hasn't shown an ounce of grumpy or sharpness with humans at all - no issues with people around his dinner bowl, or during any health checks all dogs need. He has a relatively comfortable self-contained style about him. He has a seriously full-on style when he first arrives on a scene, but if you lay down the rules from the get-go, you're set for happiness. He's happy to sleep the day away after some time and hugs with family and friends. He's not an active boy particularly. Many dogs find him intimidating simply because of his size and over exuberance with them, so he may be best as an only boy to guard his home without sharing. He really loves his human time. And he particularly loves his ears scratched. It makes him turn into a giant marshmallow! He's very puppy boisterous with happiness, and has responded well to lead training. He's super eager to le...
