

Hi, my name is Sally

Loves cuddles and walking

Small Female Staffy Dog

Sally is a lovable little bundle that LOVES having cuddles from her humans. She is an absolute 'people person' dog - super affectionate, and loves her humans more than anything. She wants nothing more than being with them! Sally loves going for walks, but can get a little intimidated when going to the leash free park so we would suggest that that is a no go zone for her. Sally has played with other dogs here at the rescue with no problems, so if introduced correctly, she is fine one on one. Sally is a well mannered girl, with a good appetite and sits really well for treats. Her perfect home would be where someone works from home or that there is someone there most of the time as she can get a little anxious without her family around. She's a happy little dog that would be also be happy being the only dog in the family and just cuddled and cared for!
