

Hi, my name is Luna

great little companion

Small Female Pomeranian Dog

Luna is approx 7-8 months old. She is a Pomeranian. Luna has been surrendered into care from a domestic household as the owner has been transferred overseas and cannot take her with them. Luna has been on a 2 week trial however she was too active for that home and is still looking for her forever home. She is very playful and happy to be around people. She is fully of energy and is easily excited. She will be well suited to someone who is at home most of the day. She is best suited in a home without other dogs. She might be better in a home without young children and with no cats in the house. She does have a little separation anxiety hence she would be best with someone who is at home a lot. She can be a little protective of her owner and her space from strangers and other dogs. She is a great little companion and has lots of love to give. She does need further work on her toilet training but is progressing well. She is still a young dog who is full of energy. She is desexed, vaccinated, wormed, heart worm tested and has been given a yearly heart worm prevention i...
