

Hi, my name is Elmo (Located In Seaford)

Friends with everyone

Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

Look at this young man! His name is Elmo. How gorgeous is he? Now, keep thinking of his stunning looks and think of his personality. Fearless, relaxed, inquisitive, trusting and caring. Let me tell you a couple of stories... When he came to us he was starving, dirty and recently desexed. All reasons for any cat would be well within their right to not trust humans. This little man? He waltzed into our house, demanding as much attention and love as he could get. He wanted to be friends with everyone. The cats, dog, humans. It didn't matter. He has obviously had his own home before and is more than able to adapt to changing circumstances very quickly. He was very dirty (from living on the streets) when he came to us, so we had to give him a bath. To be completely honest, he didn't like the bath. But as long as we kept on giving him pats and cuddles, he kept on purring. All clean and towel wrapped into a kitty purrito, he relaxed into our arms, giving us head bumps at every possibly moment. As we introduced him into the household, he had a small dog get up in his face to sm...
