

Hi, my name is Big Brown And Rebecca

We come up for cuddles

Male Lop Eared Mix Rabbit

Hi I'm Big Brown! I'm happiest when i am exploring because I'm curious and I'm not shy to say hello. I'm very free spirited, and love to binky (my happy bunny dance) when I see new things. When you open the door to the backyard I know it's play time and love running around and smelling the flowers. I'm a smart bunny so I know when to come back inside for dinner and bed time. Rebecca (dark coat, white nose) I'm a bit more of the shy one but I do come out of my shell when I get to know you. I love eating blue berries, relaxing time, Friday's, cuddles and nose pats and play time outside. We both are litter trained and we have never had an accident. We are not messy and don't chew on random things which is great for your TVs and other electrical items, although I do recommend you monitor us :) We also love to play with our toys and we come up for hugs and kisses, we love to spoil you with licks too. We have been in foster care for awhile now because we want to stay together and hope that one day our forever family will come. Are you are new family?
