

Hi, my name is Charlie

Looking for love

Small Male Maltese Mix Dog

Charlie has been in foster care for 3 months now and is a very different dog than when he first arrived. Video of Charlie 12/01/2017 <https://youtu.be/o3qT8l7wD0I> Charlie is now a happier and friendlier but it does take a while for him to adjust to new people. He seems to be more relaxed around younger adults and seems to have a complex about older adults which could have something to do with this past. Charlie is protective of his yard and owners and will bark at people visiting. Charlie is an outside dog and still needs further obedience training. He will sit with coaching for food treats. He works very well on a lead but still wants to walk in front and really enjoys his walks around the neighbourhood. He is happy to be around familiar people and looks for attention. He does not mind driving in the car. He is probably best suited in a home without young children and he would prefer younger to middle aged adults for company. Charlie is possessive of his food but he has started to relax a little more about sharing. Charlie has bonded well with the foster c...
