

Hi, my name is Harry

Looking for love

Large Male Bull Arab Mix Dog

Harry is a Bull Arab cross who has found his way into the Shelter and is now seeking his new forever home. Harry is a big boy, but is still only a baby. He has not had a lot of training in his previous life and needs an owner who is experienced with larger breeds that take longer to reach mental maturity. Gentle and goofy, Harry aims to please and is very affection-oriented and responds well to positive reinforcement. Due to his size he requires an owner confident with giant breeds and someone who is prepared to take the time to help him learn further obedience and social graces. He is relatively sensitive and learns very quickly. Harry can sit, shake, and has good recall when in an off-lead secure area. He is strong on the lead but does respond to gentle correction. He loves balls and Kong food toys and is friendly with other dogs - he mixes best with female dogs who are not too dominant. He is playful and happy and would love having another dog as a companion, providing their size and energy levels were compatible with his own. Secure fencing is a must due to his size...
