

Hi, my name is Addison

Looking for love

Female Ragdoll Mix Cat

Location: Bonogoin, Gold Coast Snuggle scope: Affectionate when she knows you Cat scope: Fine with other cats Dog scope: Not phased Child scope: Not suitable for kids under 10 Vet work: Complete Addison came into care when her owners were moving and couldn't take her with them. She was hugely pregnant, confused and scared, and was somewhat cranky, and it took some time for her carer to earn her trust. Addison loves attention but only when it suits her, and sometimes she just wants to be left alone. She gives very clear signs when she has had enough, so will need a cat savy person who will be able to read these signs. In saying this, she can be the most loving cat on the plant, but like a typical cat, it's all on her terms. After several months of good quality food, Addison's coat is now on the medium to long side with beautiful curls on her belly. She will require some brushing to keep her luscious coat tangle free. Addison has these little quiet meows that she reserves for her humans, and it's adorable! She likes to follow you around, and is quite happy to climb o...
