

Hi, my name is Cadie ~ Mastiff X Enjoys cuddles

Medium Female Mastiff Mix Dog

Introducing Cadie - Cadie is a 9 month old medium sized Mastiff x girl who is lovely and affectionate. She thinks she is a lapdog as she loves to climb on to your lap and give you cuddles. Cadie would suit a family who will take her for a walk daily - she loves to have a good sniff and explore her surroundings. She walks well on an easy-walk front clipping harness. Cadie is playful and active (but not insanely so!) so she would make a good jogging partner if you are into light jogs. She also enjoys downtime afterwards - which is typical of the Mastiff breed mix. She thrives when she's given something to do so a daily walk/jog and taking her on outings will keep her mind as well as body happy and healthy. Cadie likes people and is good at meeting children - she can be a little jumpy with kids at the start but she soon settles. Because of her medium size we'd suggest matching her to a family with older kids, teenagers or kids who are used to medium breed dogs with a zest for life already. She might accidentally knock toddlers over which is quite typical of young goofy d...
