

Hi, my name is Kazz

A beautiful soul

Medium Female Kelpie Mix Dog

Farmdogz has been trusted with the rehoming of Kazz. Sadly her elderly mum (80) had to move to a smaller place where no dogs are allowed. This very sweet girl has been in care for a couple of weeks, initially showing signs of a broken heart, lack of appetite and moping around. BUT we are pleased to say she has brightened considerably and we feel finding her the right home now will be the best for her on going needs. The sooner she is in a stable, loving environment the better. While she has come from a single dog family Kazz loves to play zoomies with the other dogs. (See video uploaded) she is equally content lazing by her foster dads chair or taking a stroll with him around the paddocks. She is very gentle in her movements and will make the ideal companion dog for someone older. Kazz doesn't really take treats from your hand even when given permission. BUT we do think she must have been treated with something in the kitchen as she is right by your side waiting for that special treat. This is when she is her most animated really perking up with lots of tail wags....
