

Hi, my name is Franklin

Looking for love

Medium Male Beagle x Cavalier King Charles Spaniel Mix Dog

Franklin is a gorgeous boy who, though a little shy and apprehensive when he first meets you, soon overcomes that and simply adores to be with his humans. Our boy will happily be an only dog in his new forever home where at least one family member either works from home or only works a couple of hours a day. Franklin warms to females quickly but can be apprehensive of men initially which can be short lived but still needs to be addressed with gentle persuasion and understanding. Being part beagle, Franklin ideally will be suited to an active family that can extensively exercise our boy as, without exercise and stimulation he can be a bit of a naughty teenager(that's the beagle in him). An older child/ children(teenage years) that are mature and dog savvy will have a great ball and exercise buddy and in turn will have Franklin snuggle on the couch when it's time to chill. Franklin has never lived with cats so will be adopted to a cat free home Franklin is also socially inept when meeting other canines for the first time so his new forever home will need to commit to e...
