

Hi, my name is Sam

Looking for love

Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

Stunning Sam! What a gorgeous boy he is! Sam came to the Shelter due to no fault of his own and is still just a young man at only 2 years of age. Handsome and sweet, Sam has a lovely pure white coat and stunning green eyes. He is not deaf, like some white cats, and is very engaging and loves to twist around your legs for attention. Just say his name and he is all over you seeking cuddles and rolling on his and back so you can stroke his tummy. He enjoys being brushed (and does require it done regularly!) and is very placid and easy to handle. He should have been called "Sam the Smoocher!" Due to Sam's pale colouring, he must be housed as an indoor cat only. Having no pigment to his skin, Sam is more prone to getting sunburned than cats with coloured coats. He would enjoy access outside in a secure and shady cat enclosure, but is also very happy to laze his days away indoors on a nice cushion or a cozy blanket. Sam is fully vaccinated, desexed, microchipped, tested for FIV, and has had flea and worm treatment. He is immaculately litter trained and never says no to a good m...
