

Hi, my name is Charli

I'm cheeky & affectionate

Female Domestic Medium Hair Cat

Little Paws Orphan Rescue was contacted by a member of the public regarding a lone kitten scavaging food at an auto body shop. When Charli arrived it was obvious she most likely came from a feral mother. She was terrified and not used to human contact. She was covered in what I thought was dirt and grime from the auto body shop. However when giving her a bath, it was quickly revealed that she was crawling with fleas and covered in flea dirt.

The water turned red and it could safely be assumed that she would have been suffering some degree of anaemia from such a heavy flea burden. After one day, Charli was happy to sit on our lap. After three days she was asking to be picked up. After five days, she ruled the house! Charli is now ready to be adopted into her forever home. She is an independent little miss and EXTREMELY Cheeky! She spends a good portion of her time exploring and entertaining herself with toys. Its in the afternoon and evenings when Charli makes her way up the lounge and onto available laps for a play session. Once she's gotten out all her playful energy she beco...
