

Hi, my name is Cruze

Looking for love

Medium Male Whippet Mix Dog

Meet Cruze, he is a 5 month old Whippet x and just a bundle of love and fun... Loud noise and new things can be a little scary to Cruze as we don't think in the short time he has been on this earth he has seen much of the outside world so can get easily overwhelmed. He would be better suited to a home with older kids and he would love it if there was another doggie playmate, he is very playful once he gets comfortable. Cruze needs someone who is home more often than not or another doggie friend to keep him company whilst you were at work. 8 hours in the backyard alone will not be suitable for this little guy... He is slowly learning doggie manners and has been sleeping inside at night in a crate; he can last about 7 hours and will let you know if he needs to get out for the toilet!! He is toilet trained at his current foster home that does not mean he is toilet trained at your house. He is losing all his puppy teeth so toys are a must for him to be able to chew (and destroyed) so as not to pick up shoes which he has shown an interest in!! We wouldn't say that Cruze is ...
