

Hi, my name is Sharky

Loving Grandpa

Medium Male Staffordshire Bull Terrier Mix Dog

Hi everyone, We are a not-for-profit organisation that operates the NSW Central Coast Council Dog and Cat Impound Facility. Our primary appointment is to impound dogs and cats found stray within the local area and attempt to reunite them with their owners. At times, this reunion is not possible and therefore we house our animals until we can adopt them out to suitable homes. For several months we have been the home to a 9-year-old Staffy cross named Sharky. Through and through, this little trooper is a great and loyal dog. Knowing his basic commands -sit, shake, stay, recall- he has shown to be a canine that loves attention, loves a bit of play, and only wants to be by his handler's side. There are certain dogs who would love nothing more than to be in the front seat while road tripping, on the lounge when at home, and exploring when out and about.; this is Sharky. If there is a dog who wants to be by your side, this is him. Knowing the type of dog that Sharky is and his behaviour, I am overly seeking a home where Sharky would be an only animal with an individual who is c...
