

Hi, my name is Estelle

Looking for love

Medium Female Bull Arab Mix Dog

Met Estelle, Estelle is little more than a puppy and is as loving and cuddly as you're likely to find. She is super snuggly and just loves being with her human. We don't think she has had much of a chance to experience the world yet and can be a little unsure of new sounds and experiences. She is a quick learner and is very responsive with commands but we think she will greatly benefit from training to help build her confidence. She loves people and is very eager to please so with this and her love of treats she is easily trainable. Estelle has not had much of a chance to just be a puppy so can come across as a little intense when meeting other dogs for the first time and the introduction would need to be in a control environment where she can have a sniff and slowly work out that the other dog is friendly. She can get a little overwhelmed if a dog gets in her face. With time and training we believe she will be able to have doggie friends!! She walks well on a halti or harness and does enjoy getting out of the house, at home she is happy to settle down beside you ...
