

Hi, my name is Bandit

Friendly boy

Medium Male Siberian Husky Dog

Bandit by name, snuggler by nature! Bandit is an absolutely delightful boy who loves a good chat and a hug. This three year old boy is very well mannered and past his teenage years, so he's the perfect addition to someone's home. Sociable, he knows his manners like sitting, shaking and lying down on command, walks well on lead after the first few enthusiastic minutes and he even loves to play fetch! He's got a beautiful nature and personality, gets along with everyone and just loves his hugs. And when we say gets along with everyone, this goes for humans, dogs and even cats (he prefers to not pay attention to them unless he gets a playful swipe). He currently lives in foster care with indoor cats that are kept separate from him, he's not overly fussed about them when he see them through a door. We would consider cat homes if the cats didn't affect the requirements for Bandit - wanting to be inside with his humans. He is also well mannered around children. Bandit has really distinctive face markings, giving him a unique look, and he's all husky when it comes to his pe...
