

Hi, my name is Brazil The Fluffpot!

So fluffy!

Female Domestic Long Hair Cat

Brazil was named because with all her fluff on her little girl body her bum looks huge! She's the most gorgeous little fluffball, so different to her siblings in looks and even in personality. She's very snuggly and calls out for cuddles but also loves investigating and climbing on the branches in her enclosure. She'll best suit a family with kids or a couple who want a cuddly, tactile cat and won't be allergic to her hair. She'll need some grooming to keep those gorgeous locks neat and knot free but other than that she's an easy cat and just the cutest little thing as she's still so young and little!

All our pets come desexed, microchipped, with her first lots of vaccinations, and has been flead and wormed. Pls note we really, really request a collar and name-tag on your new pet, ideally a bell to ease wildlife kills for cats but definitely a way for you to be contacted if your pet is found, hit by a car, picked up by council, or even (dare we say it) targeted by a neighbo...
