

Hi, my name is Titan ~ Malamute

Friendly and attentive

Large Male Alaskan Malamute Dog

Introducing the attentive big cuddly bear called Titan . This lovely boy is playful and full of character - he's a shmoocher who is looking for a loving home to call his own. Titan likes to frolic and bounce around the yard like a spring lamb. When he first meets you he gets very excited and jumps around like a gazelle to say hi - once he settles down this bubbly boy will show you his manners and soft side. He loves to be touching you - whether that's leaning on your legs for a scratch or sitting almost on top of your feet to remind you he's there. Titan is a loyal fellow who is happy to have a good sniff and explore but would rather be by your side. He may suit a home with another friendly female doggy friend or he would also be happy as a solo canine. As with most arctics he is best suited to a home without cats or pocket pets. Titan sits well and takes treats very gently. He'll come when you call him and throw himself into your open arms for a hug. He's a tad clumsy and not so coordinated with putting on his brakes so be ready for the occasional unintentional k...
