

Hi, my name is Perri

Looking for love

Medium Male Terrier Mix Dog

Perri is a happy boy that loves to be with his humans. A perfect forever home for Perri will be with his new owners spending a good proportion of the day with him so either a member of the family working from home or working only a minimal amount of hours. Perri has always been used to company so therefore we would like that to continue. If Perri's new owner can spend an extremely substantial part of every day with him then he would be able to be placed as an only pet. He would co exist with a smaller dog but is much more human focused than canine and wouldn't get on with a dog that was invading his space or over exuberant. Perri has reached a very good weight of 24.2kg but will always need to have his weight monitored. He needs regular exercise on a daily basis. An active family would be perfect for Perri. He has been diagnosed with hypothyroidism in the past and has been taking thyroid medication. He has recently been assessed by our vet and his thyroid levels are stable - medication will continue and he will need to be reassessed at 6 monthly intervals. Perri hasn't li...
