

Hi, my name is Perri

Looking for love

Medium Male Terrier Mix Dog

Perri would be ideally suited to an active family that would play ball, run around with him and generally spend time outdoors with him helping him to use up all his wonderful new found energy. In return Perri will love you to the moon and back. He will be happy to co exist with another small dog as long as they respect his space. Perri will need to be placed with a dog savvy new owner or family as he has a fairly strong personality so he needs to know his place in the pack or he would take over and rule the roost !!!! Perri has hypothyroidism and takes daily medication which is keeping his condition stable. A 3 monthly veterinary check would be required to make sure that everything is as it should be. Perri is a medium sized terrier and is fairly strong on a lead so would not be a suitable companion for an elderly person or someone who is physically compromised. Perri will be suited to a family with older children as toddlers he may knock over with his exuberance. Perri would need to be placed in a cat free home.
