

Hi, my name is Clive

Looking for love

Male Domestic Medium Hair Cat

Is that the roar of a powerful V8 engine? No, it's just Clive...the purring machine! A beautifully-natured big boy, Clive can be heard purring from miles away. He is happiest when he is getting head and chin scratches - or when you are feeding him! An easy-going and loving cat, Clive is a laid back kind of guy who would love to make someone's family complete. Clive came to the Shelter as an undesexed stray and was never reclaimed. He has the best nature and seems very tolerant of other cats. He is also always happy to meet new people and bask in their attention. Clive is a quiet boy and would suit a relaxed household with a quiet kitty companion or on his own. He would keep your lap (and the rest of you!) warm on a chilly winter's day and would more than likely spend most of his time lazing about on the couch or on your bed. Clive likes being held and doesn't mind a frisky play session with toys, but his favourite hobby is "making bread" (prancing happily in place with his front paws) and being loved. Clive has been fully vetted, including being desexed, microchipped, ...
