

Hi, my name is Augustus

Looking for love

Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

Augustus is a sweet, funny little soul who after a rocky start in life has really blossomed into a cool cat. He started life as a street kitten which meant that he was very nervous of humans when he first came into foster care (you can change his back story appropriately obviously I don't really have all the details). With some patience and TLC however he has come so far and is now a perky, curious kitten who is relaxed and enjoying life. Gus is still a cautious cat and not a fan of lots of bustle or noise so would suit a home where he is the only cat or with a calm older animal and older children who can go slow and steady with him at first. His favourite thing in life is food and while his first reaction when faced with a new situation is to find somewhere to hide he quickly gets over it if there is a food reward available. All you really need to win this little boy's love is a tin of wet cat food or some BBQ chicken and he will be your best buddy eating out of your hand within minutes. Like most kittens Gussie has a lot of energy and loves to run and play whether it's chasing a...
