

Hi, my name is A Tale Of Two Kitties!

Their beautiful bond

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

Cuddles was a stray that was being fed by an elderly lady, who got her vet work done and let her live on her property with her mum Pippa and sister Harleyquin. Sadly the lady went into care and then passed away, and the cats, while still being fed, were left to themselves and lost a lot of the socialisation that they had gained. It has taken a while for that socialisation to be regained, but together, these girls have come such a long way. They are extremely bonded and need to go to a loving home together. Cuddles hasn't quite lived up to her name; she does love a pat but doesn't like being picked up. Harleyquin on the other hand is a super smooch. She loves her humans and loves being petted. These girls draw their confidence from each other and support each other and oh my, they LOVE to play together! Trust us, you won't need a TV. These girls are entertainment enough!! Cuddles is a medium sized pretty calico cat with soft fur and lovely markings. She looks like she's been painted by a fine artist! Harleyquin is another work of art with her beautiful torti coat and s...
