

Hi, my name is ♥ Dallas And Holly ~ Bonded Pair ♥

Born Sledders

DALLAS & HOLLY
3yr old • Siberian Husky

- Dallas & Holly are very similar to each other in multiple ways, they both love people, toys & other dogs
- Both are extremely energetic dogs and will need ongoing training and stimulation to make sure they don't get bored & destructive. They will need active owners to keep up with them or if you're interested in sledding these two absolutely love it
- Holly & Dallas require experienced arctic owners and a home without young children, older teenagers who are use to bouncy dogs will be considered

Dallas & Holly require a home without cats or pocket pets & must have 6ft dig proof fencing

Medium Male Siberian Husky Dog

Introducing our sweet pair of Siberian Huskies Dallas and Holly. These bubbly youngsters are approximately 2 years and a wonderful bonded pair if you are looking to adopt an instant fur-family. They are full of playful fun and would suit a sledding family who also have them as inside pets, or a highly active family who will exercise them daily to fulfill their energy levels. Dallas is a cheeky chocolate coloured boy with warm hazel eyes. Holly is a soft white doe-eyed girl with one multi-coloured eye. They love to play rough and tumble games with each other which will entertain you daily - Holly likes to grab Dallas' paws to trip him up so he will sit on her ! They love to follow each other around the yard exploring and both enjoy a paddle in a water-filled clam-pool if you have one. They are water dogs who would happily join you at the beach or lake if you live near one, on lead of Dallas and Holly are good at sharing and like to play with tennis balls. They will jump up a bit when excited and Dallas likes a little game of jumping on you from behind when he gets really...
