

Hi, my name is Elsa

Looking for love

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

As my name suggests, I am definitely a Queen. I walk around my foster house like I own the place and heads turn as I strut down the hallway. But after a hard day of ruling the world, I want nothing more than to feast on some fine tuna and then snuggle down on the couch with my human servants. My hobbies include sleeping in really cute positions, kneading people, sleeping on soft, dark coloured pillows and playing in my tunnel. I came into care after being dumped at a pound and left to die, with my five little babies that were not even a week old. OTC were contacted and were begged to take us in, and so they did. Now that my babies are all grown up, I prefer to receive all the attention my humans have to do and as such would most like to be the only cat in the home. Farewell for now, Elsa x
