

Hi, my name is Gretta

BEST FRIEND MATERIAL

Medium Female Staffy Mix Dog

We would like to think that the best thing to ever happen to Gretta was that she was impounded. You see life thus far has been less than good so now she has the chance of a wonderful future in a loving and caring home where she will be treasured. When Gretta came to us she was heavily pregnant and in very poor condition. That is now all behind her and she is ready to become a treasured, adoring family member. We think she would best suit a home where she won't be left alone for long periods, in a quiet environment, with a secure yard for hanging out and a person that is happy to go for a walk. She needs to be an only dog, but is fine when other dogs are around in controlled situations. Her mix of breeds is a mystery and now that she is a healthy weight she looks less staffy like, although quite chunky and solid. She is a very sweet girl who has had a terrible life and she is ready to be a loving pet/friend.
