

Hi, my name is Buffy

Fluff ball extreme

Female Domestic Medium Hair Cat

So we've had Buffy in specialist foster care for a week or so now. We've learned a bit more about her personality and her attitude and found that she really just likes being the centre of attention!! She has been living with 3 small dogs, a cat, two young boys (very animal savvy kids) and her adult humans who have a lot of experience with animal behaviours. It seems that Buffy doesn't like to share her humans. She gets along with the dogs, in fact she stares them down 😊 But she is really craving attention from a human. So we'd like to put her in a foster or forever family with no other animals, and if there are kids, they need to be able to give her space to do her own thing. She has "catitude" so needs an understanding human/s that realise a love bite doesn't mean she doesn't want you. It just means she needs space. She is loving and beautiful but needs time to be on her own as well. Although she is the queen of the house!
