

Hi, my name is Lachie

Looking for love

Large Male American Staffordshire Bull Terrier Mix Dog

Lovely older Am Staffy Lachie has been with us since May. He's 11 years and got tired of coping in kennel so foster Mum Demi has been taking great care of him and loves him to bits. Unfortunately for Lachie, Demi is returning to full-time FIFO work in January, so she and we, desperately want to spare this old man from returning the Home - can you help? Despite his advancing years, Lachie is still strong on lead and loves a short 20-30 min walk everyday - for this reason he will be best in a home with an active older couple or single or empty-nesters. Lachie loves people but his only drawback is he is not friendly with other dogs - this means keeping a distance in public places, not taking him into dog parks or dog beaches and choosing a quieter time of the day to go for a stroll. Lachie will cope with being left during the day but does love company so people who work part-time or are semi-retired would suit him best. He is fine around kids but of course being a larger dog and a bit of a doofus, he needs to be monitored. He's a loyal and loving dog who won't ask for much...
