

Hi, my name is Gerald

Friendly and Sweet

Male Domestic Medium Hair Cat

Hi my name is Gerald! I used to be a feral street kitten, but the first time my foster mum tried to type "feral" into her phone it corrected to Gerald and so that became my new name for my new life! I have come a long way from life on the streets and I am much more confident and outgoing with humans now, I love to play or cuddle up on the couch. I've realised that humans are pretty fantastic since they give me pats and treats and in return I rub my head against them and purr (the humans like this a lot!) I haven't met any other kitties while I've been in care, but being a youngster with a slow introduction I could go to a house with other cats. Dogs might be a bit much for me unless they are very respectful of cats. I am good with kids, but a household with older kids or teenagers might be best as sometimes I get startled and I'm still a little shy with new situations. Are you my new family?
