

Hi, my name is Diesel

Very willing to learn

Large Male Great Dane Mix Dog

Diesel is an energetic pup in a big body. Only 7 months old he has much growing and learning to do. He's not quite 100% Great Dane but you could be fooled as he has many of the common Great Dane traits. Diesel loves his fluffy toys and chew toys. He's ready for a game and a run and then ready to snooze on the couch. He's a cuddly boy and whilst boisterous at times being a pup, he can also be gentle. Diesel's been working hard on his obedience which he's attended since he was very young. He can walk well on lead and knows basic commands. He is very capable of learning tricks in short periods of time and enjoys a challenge and games. Unfortunately he's had a couple of setbacks in his socialisation which will require a very dedicated new home to help him move past to be comfortable around dogs again. He has recently become reactive to other dogs. We are seeking a giant or large breed experienced owner with a calm energy for Diesel as he will need plenty of guidance from a very confident handler. We won't be considering a home with kids even though Diesel has done quite well with...
