Looking for love

Male Domestic Short Hair Mix Cat

Hello, my name is Deano. My twin sister Dina and I are two tabby babies looking for our forever home. We are a shy pair who will need a loving and patient owner with a quiet house where we can take our time to settle in. We have been with our foster family for a while now and are still a little shy and hesitant towards pats and head scratches, but on the rare occasion when we are calm and relaxed we are quite happy to rub ourselves around your hands. We may purr around you, but we are not lap cats and do not like being picked up. We love to play with moving toys, like our mouse of a string, toys we can hunt and our moving laser light. During the day we can be found lying at our lengths under beds or on our tall cat trees in the lounge room and foster room so we can watch the family and the birds outside. Once our foster family has gone to bed we can be heard taking part in the cat equivalent of the Melbourne Cup. In our foster home, we have been exposed to other cats and a boxer dog, but we mainly kept to ourselves. We are better suited to a home without young children and with...
