

Hi, my name is Merindah Dingo

Sweet and quiet

Medium Female Dingo Dog

Magnificent Merindah: This pawfect shy, gentle pocket sized pup is looking for a quiet, patient furever home where she can come out of her shell and truly shine. Merindah is incredibly gentle and affectionate and wouldn't hurt a fly. Merindah is one of our smallest rescue dingoes at just 13kg, she has a petite frame and is unlikely to grow any bigger. We believe Merindah's small size is due to malnourishment at her former home. She has more than doubled her weight since arriving to our shelter in December last year, and her confidence is growing every day. Merindah walks well on lead but is still easily startled by strangers and loud noises and needs a home willing to continue her training, working with her to build her confidence. Merindah would suit a home with older, quiet/respectful children or no children. No cats, pocket pets or birds please. Merindah needs a backyard and at least 1.8m secure fencing made of a sheer material such as colourbond.
