

Hi, my name is Honey

Sweet quiet girl

Medium Female Kelpie Dog

Honey is the mummy of Luna and Louie who have nearly all been adopted. She is a real sweetheart This darling Kelpie girl was really scared and timid when she came into care. Honey had her puppies two days later. She is still a little timid with new people but soon warms up when she knows she can trust you. Being a working dog Honey will enjoy regular exercise and mental stimulation and this will also build her confidence. Honey is house trained so is an inside outside dog, loves to be near her people. She will need good fencing being a Kelpie. This girl is on the small side of medium. Honey will need a calm home as she has a very gentle nature.
