

Hi, my name is Arin

Looking for love

Medium Male Staffy Mix Dog

Arin is looking for a new best friend, could it be you? Arin is needing some help with building his confidence as the world is still a little scary at the moment and would love a patient family to help him out. Arin is looking for a home with adults only and may even get along with another doggy friend. Arin is also still learning that being alone doesn't have to be scary but still needs some help with his independence training. Arin would love a home where he can be let inside so he can snuggle up on his new parents lap. Arin can't wait for the stress-free, best days of his life and reckons you can help him get there. This smart boy knows a lot of skills already like sit, drop, shake and even roll over! This smart boy would love his new family to teach him some more fun tricks using positive reinforcement techniques. Arin is a large sized dog. Think you've met the one? Please come down to meet this cutie!
