

Hi, my name is Lulu

Looking for love

Female Domestic Short Hair Mix Cat

I have been surrendered as my previous house was very stressful and I wasn't coping with the younger children. It's best I go to a home where I will be the only pet and get all the love and attention. I have never been outside, inside is stressful enough for me, so would like to remain an indoor only kitty cat. When I first came into foster care I was so scared, my foster family took time teaching me to love again and now I love pats! I'll even jump onto my foster carer's bedside table when her morning alarm goes off and demand my morning pat! If I don't get it, I will tap her with my paw to remind her what time it is. I do like my own space, but I also like to be around you as much as possible. Especially if you're in the kitchen, maybe you're making some food for me? I love that tap in the bathroom! I will meow at my foster mum to turn it on. I also get zoomies and run around the house chasing shadows! I'm quite vocal when I want love, I would suit older kids, I'm not shy about giving you a warning smack if I've had enough. You should come visit me in my foster...
