

Hi, my name is Penny & Nate

Bonded Brother & Sister

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

Seeking low-maintenance cats who don't demand affection? Then meet brother and sister Penny and Nate. Penny and Nate have been patiently waiting for their forever home after almost 6 years in foster care. Although shy, with a little patience they will begin to flourish, in time you shall reap the rewards. Penny and Nate are best suited to a quiet home with an indoor-only lifestyle and they will not mind if you are at work most of the day or have other pets. They may take a while to settle, but once they learn to trust you, you shall receive their love. Nate is not needy and would much rather explore his surroundings, than have a cuddle. However, once he has finished his paw patrol, he will quite happily keep you company from the arm of the sofa and will not mind if you offer him a tasty treat from your hand. Penny, shyer than her brother, may take a little longer to settle in, but she will give you the odd headbutt to show affection. They both enjoy lounging around the house, bathing in sunbeams and sometimes sleeping on their foster carer's bed. We belie...
