

Hi, my name is Bella

Friendly & sweet girl

Medium Female Siberian Husky Dog

Bella is a friendly, sweet natured girl and is very dog social. She loves people and wants nothing more than to be petted. She can be easily handled and is very attentive to her humans. She always wants to be where the action is, so will be a great girl to have around. She isn't food obsessed but is treat motivated. Bella does play biting whilst playing but she corrects easily. She's eager to learn she just needs someone who can continue positive reinforcement training with her. She has a lot of energy and would love another suitable sized energy buddy to play with. Would suit primary aged children Not great onlead - will need some lead training , the rescue will help the carers with this. No cats or pocket pets 6ft dig proof fencing
Please contact us by email or complete a foster application if you can help foster Bella.
