

Hi, my name is Gizelle

Adopt Love!

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

Hi my name is Gizelle - I look very sweet and pretty and am certainly feeling a lot better than I was. I was found with a broken tail and pelvis and as no one came to claim me SAFE said they could help me get better. I had to have some of my tail amputated and stay quiet for several weeks but I am now all mended and can run and jump like any other cat. I have the sweetest little tail and it can still tell you just how I am feeling  When I came to SAFE I was quite frightened of being handled and would growl a bit with fear but I am learning that not every person will hurt me and so now my carer can pick me up and carry me around a little and I am much more relaxed now when she strokes me - I am gradually learning to trust people again. I share my foster home with some other cats and am getting used to them. I can be a bit naughty and chase them sometimes if they get too close but they have learned that I like my own space and so don't bother me. I think I would like a home where I am the only cat with just one or two gentle people. I don't think I could live with c...
