

Hi, my name is Smudge

Adopt Love!

Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

Hello, my name is Smudge and I am a really smoochy boy. I came to SAFE Esperance because I was lost and couldn't find my way home and had been trying to take care of myself, you see I wasn't microchipped so we couldn't find my family. I am really happy now that I am in a safe place and am well looked after. I am a little timid and shy of new people but once I know you I love to have strokes and a free lap is very inviting - I really am a sweet boy. I also have FIV (feline immunodeficiency virus) and could possibly live with another FIV kitty friend to keep me company. FIV is not as scary as it sounds! It just means you have to keep up to date with my vaccinations, feed me good quality food and take extra good care of my health. I also need to be an inside cat or have access to my own cat run. As long as I'm well looked after I should live a long and happy life. I'm really easy going and undemanding and so deserve that special home to call my own. If you would like to meet me please do get in touch.
