

Hi, my name is Napoleon

Looking for love

Male Domestic Short Hair Mix Cat

Napoleon is desexed, microchipped and vaccinated. Napoleon's favourite things in the world are food and pats. He is very fond of his cat brother and sister and loves to curl up next to them, so he is definitely happy to live with another friendly cat given proper slow introduction occurs. Napoleon is happy to live along side a friendly pooch as long as they give him space. He is litter trained, not a fussy eater. He is quite happy to sit on the couch/bed with his humans and cuddle up for a pat.
