

Hi, my name is Bomber

Looking for love

Male Dsh Mix Cat

Hi, our names are Bomber and Ginger Megs, we were brought to the RSPCA as our owner could no longer care for us, we are a bonded pair and we need to find home that will be able to take both of us, as we are brothers our lives would not be the same without each other. When we arrived at the shelter, we were itchy and it was discovered I had an ulcerated upper lip, so I have been under treatment for fleas and allergies. We are both on a special diet that is helping keep our allergies at bay. Ginger Megs also had gingivitis and has had a few teeth removed, he is also feeling a lot better too, we are no longer in pain and are enjoying our new lives. We are sweet boys, if you feel we could be a perfect match to your life, come down to the shelter and meet us.
