

Hi, my name is Nell Application Pending

Sweet and snuggly!

Medium Female Kelpie Dog

Hey y'all, my name is Nell. I am little, sweet and snuggly black Kelpie girl around 10 week old. I am steadily gaining confidence when playing with other dogs and new environments. I am completely and utterly guilty when it comes to pats, getting a scratch on my head is the best thing in the world. I love my big foster brother and my siblings and would thrive in a home with another dog, big or small, to have someone to run with all day. I am very active and enjoy playing chasey and tug toys. I am very pleased in my two world record, you may have seen them, I have the record for the most amount of tail wags in a day and the biggest tail wag – hitting either side of my body each time. I am super smart and learn new tricks fast. I am currently learning how to sit, walk on a lead and come when my name is called. I am guilt though when training, as food is my weakness, this will see me licking your fingers for hours after its gone. I am learning that I have to finish my food before leaving the table, otherwise I am brought back time and time again, even though there are so many e...
