

Hi, my name is Apollo

Sweet and loving

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

From being the tiniest in his litter, Apollo has grown into a big, bold and cheeky personality. He is constantly managing mischief whilst simultaneously endearing himself to you - butter wouldn't melt in his mouth! He delights in play and if you are already busy, he will amuse himself with just about anything he can find and come find you for snuggles later. Apollo has grown up with a dog, several adult cats and other foster kittens but we have found he can be very shy in new places and with new animals. If he goes to a home with other pets, expect him to take a while to settle in - he's just a bit unsure right at first. Once he gets to know everyone he's a very happy boy! Apollo does, however, love people and children and is a robust little boy who doesn't mind being picked up and handled. He likes to be wherever the humans are (although he's good about keeping to his own space so he's not all over you ALL the time) and he loves to snuggle up in bed with you of a night. He's curious about the outside world but his experience so far has been limited to indoor only with acces...
