

Hi, my name is Bart (Located In Boronia)

Super Playful

Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

Meet Sir Bartholo-mew of Melbourne, but you can call him Bart! Bart is confident, relaxed, cheeky and friendly. He came into care with his mum and his 3 siblings, and cannot wait to be a part of your family!

Super playful and curious, Bart loves his toys, he loves exploring, but more than anything, he loves cuddles! Bart loves to be picked up and carried around, and spends most of his waking time purring. Bart is litter trained, has a good appetite and is always up for a chat. He is especially keen on sharing his opinions on world politics, which are usually misinformed because he is a kitten and doesn't watch the news. Bart is outgoing and enthusiastic, and would suit most households, from singles to families with children of all ages. He has lived with other cats, and has also lived with a dog at his previous foster home. Bart is looking for an indoor-only home. Currently in care with his sister, Spot, they would love to be adopted together if possible, though Bart would also be fine alone. Cheltenham Cat Rescue offers a significant discount if you adopt two ki...
