

Hi, my name is Tia

Family Pet

Medium Female Mixed Breed Dog

Tia is outgoing and very people social. She is suitable for a home with active humans that can include her in their daily activities and who will continue her training. Tia loves walks and she loves to play under the hose in the yard with her humans. She isn't demanding of your attention and will manage alone while her family are at work /school as long as there is a walk or a game when you get home. Tia is best suited to a home as an only dog. .... dumped at a pound with her young pup she was quite protective of him and she is just starting to accept the company of dogs. Tia's breed mix is a mystery : stumpy tail, white with tan patches, very fine and short coat. She is fully grown and about the size of lab. Lovely affectionate girl.
